

A MAN IS THROWN INTO CHAOS, A CITY INTO TURMOIL

Tight Fit Theatre presents a new adaptation of Sophocles'

OEDIPUS REX

at the Wycombe Swan Town Hall on March 21, 22, 23, 24 at 8 pm (plus matinees for education)
Tickets £10, concessions £8

The Wycombe Swan's resident company follows its sell out Macbeth and acclaimed Phoenician Women with another timeless classic in a new adaptation.

The cast of professional actors includes:

Graham Morris-Almond as Oedipus

Graham trained at ALRA (the Academy of Live and Recorded Arts) and his theatre credits include: Medvenlo in The Seagull and Jeff in The Long Good Friday. His previous greek includes Menelaus in The Trojan Women directed by Julian Glover.

Tom Sykes as Creon

Tom trained at Mountview. His theatre credits include Lord Wotton in The Picture of Dorian Gray.

Christopher Tate as Teireseus

Christopher Trained at East 15 and his theatre credits include Down and Out in Paris and London and Our Country's Good.

Frazer Kellas as Jocasta

Frazer trained at the Rep College and credits include Rochester in Jane Eyre, Zangler in On the Razzle and Antonio in The Tempest.

Tim Hill (the Company Producer) said:

"This promises to be another cracking adaptation of a classic with an excellent team of experienced professional actors. It will be a performance to remember."

Tickets are already selling well so we urge patrons to book early to avoid disappointment. Swan box office 01494 512000

TIGHT
FIT
THEATRE

42 Heath Road
Beaconsfield
HP9 1DG
01494 681980
Fax: 01494 681096

TIM HILL
(Company Producer)

tim@tightfittheatre.co.uk

visit our web site:

www.tightfittheatre.co.uk

(where you will find over 1,000 files relating to past and future events)

Resources, including the full text of this release are available from:

www.tightfittheatre.co.uk

or email to:

rex@tightfittheatre.co.uk