

A MAN IS THROWN INTO CHAOS, A CITY INTO TURMOIL

Tight Fit Theatre presents a new adaptation by Mark Oldknow of Sophocles'

OEDIPUS REX

at the Wycombe Swan Town Hall on March 21, 22, 23, 24 at 8 pm (plus matinees for education)
Tickets £10, concessions £8

After solving the riddle of the Sphinx, and taking as his reward the throne of Thebes and the hand of the widowed Queen, Oedipus turns his attention to unravelling the mystery of the prophecy of Delphi which made him leave Corinth. Will he kill his father and marry his mother?

Does he even know who his real parents are?

Tight Fit Theatre has assembled an all-male cast to bring this new adaptation to the Town Hall at the Wycombe Swan, where the company is resident.

Cast:

Graham Morris-Almond,
Frazer Kellas

Tom Sykes,
Christopher Tate

Swan box office 01494 512000

Resources, including the full text of this release and photographs for publication are available from:

www.tightfittheatre.co.uk/oedipus

email your request to:
pr67@tightfittheatre.co.uk
or phone 01494 681980

(To book complementary seats for reviewers, please call or email)

TIGHT FIT THEATRE

42 Heath Road
Beaconsfield
HP9 1DG
01494 681980
Fax: 01494 681096

TIM HILL
(Company Producer)

tim@tightfittheatre.co.uk

visit our web site:

www.tightfittheatre.co.uk

(where you will find over
1,000 files relating to past and future events)